Dear Mr. Chapman,

I have had the medals for you since last Friday, I have tried several times to go down to see you, but I have been "Called Back " each time. I will be here tomorrow(Wednesday) from 11A.M. until six P.M. Can you call between that time? My Committee meets at 3.15P.M. and I am busy preparing for them. If you cannot see me tomorrow, I will try to see you on Thursday about 3 P.M. I should like to exchange a Philo Lodge medal for the one you left with me. It is a very fine medal. Only 300 were struck off.

Very truly yours,

Geo. P. Rupp

[Announcement of the Committee on Library.]

[Handwritten notes of Chapman on the back refer to Rupp and coins.]

"The Committee on Library is doing a most valuable service to the Craft in the printing of the early records of Grand Lodge. It is a work that should be in the possession of every member of the Fraternity, and I cheerfully and cordially commend it."

EDGAR A. TENNIS, Grand Master.

Masonic Temple, Philadelphia, December, 1903.

Dear Sir and Brother:

The Committee on Library announce the publication of Volumes VII and VIII of the minutes of Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, F. & A. M. This is a correct copy of the records of Grand Lodge, now published for the first time in full.

It is invaluable to the Masonic student and should be in the possession of every member of the Fraternity, who desires to familiarize himself with the history of the Grand Lodge.

Of the volumes heretofore issued:

Volume I, contains the minutes from 1779 to 1801.
" II, contains the minutes from 1801 to 1810.
" III, contains the minutes from 1811 to 1816.
" IV, contains the minutes from 1817 to 1822.
" V, contains the minutes from 1822 to 1827.
" VI, contains the minutes from 1828 to 1839.
" VII, contains the minutes from 1840 to 1848.
" VIII, contains the minutes from 1848 to 1854.

The price is $1.00 per volume and 25 cents additional for postage, which is less than the cost of printing.

The Committee hopes that all who have the earlier volumes will remit for Volumes VII and VIII, and those who do not yet possess a set of these minutes will order them at once.

Fraternally yours,

Louis Wagner, Chairman.

William McIlroy,	Gilbert L. Lentz,
Arno Leonhardt,	Joshua L. Lyte,
I. Layton Register, Treasurer.	Thomas S. Stout, Secretary.

George P. Rupp, Librarian.

Secretaries of Masonic Bodies are fraternally requested to read this notice at their next meeting.
